Request-for-Proposals Open for K-12 Online Content for California Schools

Deadline: January 12, 2018

SACRAMENTO, CA – The Riverside County Office of Education (RCOE), on behalf of the California State Library, is requesting proposals from qualified providers of general online content databases and encyclopedias. The purpose is to provide shared access of K-12 Educational Online Content to California students, educators, and administrators. These shared database resources must provide full-text documents for age-appropriate content that covers elementary through high-school curriculum.

Deadline: January 12, 2018

Proposal documents are available to download from the Riverside County Office of Education website:
