

2010/11 LSTA – California’s Family Place Library Program (FPLP)

The Family Place Library Program is an initiative that has two components -- "California's Family Place Training Institute" and "California's Family Place Implementation". Libraries are chosen after a competitive application process and after attending the Institute they became eligible to apply for an implementation grant.

Library/Jurisdiction	Award
Altadena Library District	$15,000
Azusa City Library	$15,000
El Dorado County Library - Cameron Park Branch	$15,000
Orange County Public Libraries - La Habra Branch	$15,000
Oxnard Public Library - South Oxnard Branch	$15,000
Porterville Public Library	$15,000
Sacramento Public Library	$15,000
San Bernardino Public Library	$15,000
San Mateo County Library	$15,000
Santa Clara City Library - Central Park Library	$15,000
Sierra Madre Public Library	$15,000
Sunnyvale Public Library	$15,000