

2009/10 LSTA – Literacy and Workforce Development Initiative

This project is designed to support public libraries in their effort to increase access for their patrons to employment and job skills training resources with computers and online career and educational tools. Participating libraries are those in California counties where the unemployment rate and low literacy rate are higher than the state average and currently provide adult literacy services.

Library/Jurisdiction	Award
Brawley Public Library	$5,000
Colusa County Free Library	$5,000
Corona Public Library	$5,000
Fresno County Public Library	$10,000
Lodi Public Library	$5,000
Orland Free Library	$5,000
Sacramento Public Library	$10,000
San Bernardino County Library	$10,000
Stanislaus County Free Library	$2,600
Tulare Public Library	$5,000
Willows Public Library	$5,000
Riverside County Library System	$9,381
San Bernardino Public Library	$10,000
Tulare County Library	$5,000