AFLP - The Adolescent Family Life Program addresses the social, health, educational, and economic consequences of adolescent pregnancy by providing comprehensive case management services to pregnant and parenting teens and their children. The AFLP emphasizes promotion of positive youth development, focusing on and building upon the adolescents' strengths and resources to work toward:

- Improving the health of the pregnant and parenting teen, thus supporting the health of the baby
- Improving graduation rates
- Reducing repeat pregnancies
- Improving linkages and creating networks for pregnant and parenting teens

Teen Wire is the newest magazine on the blog for teenagers. We discuss all of the hot topics, from the adventure of high school and entering college, to the mysteries of sex and dating, and even political issues. Education should not stop once the school bell rings, and it definitely does not have to be boring. Learning about nutrition, fitness, bodily and mental health... many of these issues have come to be frankly ignored in the school system now. Teen Wire is the solution.
