

Covina Public Library

Principal Graphic Designer

Principal Graphic Designer will analyze the library's current public communication needs. The Principal Graphic Designer will find the most effective and innovative ways to get the messages across in print, electronic and video media using a variety of methods such as color, font, illustrations, photography, animation and various print and layout techniques.

Position Incentive:

Principal Graphic Designer's work will be credited. Letters of recommendation will be provided.

Skills Required:

Expertise with state-of-the-art graphic design software, portfolio of creative and effective design work required, visual/spatial thinker able to understand our operation and translate essential points into an effective design.