

BRaille AND TALKING BOOK LIBRARY
Library-Courts Building II
P.O. Box 942837
Sacramento, CA 94237-0001
(916) 654-0640
(800) 952-5666

What is BTBL Staff Reading?

This article appears in the BTBL News, Winter 2012/13 edition. To order any of these titles, contact the library by email, phone, mail, in person, or order through our online catalog. Select titles can be downloaded from BARD.

Major Pettigrew's Last Stand By Helen Simonson

"A staunch, retired Major falls unexpectedly in love with a Pakistani shop owner. This sweet love story starts a bit slow, but is a light and uplifting read. I love that the book explores the blending of two cultures and intolerance from family members that the couple must face." –Joan, Circulation

Download from BARD DB 70760

Also available on digital cartridge DB 70760

Also available on cassette RC 70760

Download from BARD as Electronic Braille

Also available in braille BR 18827

The Tin Drum By Günter Grass "Considered a classic and penned by a Nobel Prize winning author, the unique perspective of German culture during the Nazi regime stands out in this odd story of drummer, Oskar Matzerath, who quits growing at the age of three." –Johanna, Circulation

Download from BARD DB 71622

Also available on digital cartridge DB 71622

Also available on cassette RC 71622

The Girl Who Circumnavigated Fairyland in a Ship of Her Own Making

By Catherynne M. Valente "Fans of The Wizard of Oz and Alice in Wonderland will enjoy this magical tale of a clever girl from Nebraska and her adventures in Fairyland. Filled with humor, heart, and vibrant writing." -Robert, Reader Advisor

Download from BARD DB 73304

Also available on digital cartridge DB 73304

Still Alice By Lisa Genova

"This fictional novel offers an eye-opening exploration into Alzheimer's disease from a unique perspective — that of the patient. Follow Harvard professor Alice Howard's fall into early-onset Alzheimer's." –Sarah, Reader Advisor

Download from BARD DB 68429

Also available on digital cartridge DB 68429

Also available on cassette RC 68429

Condominium By John D. MacDonald “You feel like you’re there to experience the fast-paced world of those who chose retirement living in Florida’s Keys only to find their world turned ‘upside down’ by corruption, greed, and the vagaries of the unexpected.” –Valerie, Reader Advisor

Download from BARD DB 10862

Also available on cassette RC 10862