

NOTE: This is for reference only! Please apply online!

Welcome to the online application for AWE Early Literacy Stations! Here California public libraries may apply for the opportunity to purchase up to 2 AWE stations for their libraries for $500 each (less than 20% of the normal price).

100 AWE stations (50 English, 50 Bilingual Spanish/English) are available. Libraries with lower LIPC (local income per capita) will receive priority.

PLEASE BE AWARE that in SurveyMonkey you must fill out the entire application in one session. We strongly suggest that you refer to the print version of this application (available at <http://www.library.ca.gov/services/libraries/AWEStations.html> and develop your answers before completing and submitting your application online.

For more information about AWE, please see <https://awelearning.com/early-literacy-station/>.

This project is supported by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian.
