Project Final Report

A final narrative report is required on the use of federal Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) funds following the completion of a project during each project year. The information you report will be used to complete the California State Library report of how funds were expended. Excerpts from this report may be submitted to the Federal government in their evaluation, or may be published by the State Library or shared with other institutions. Please answer all of the questions thoroughly. Please attach any reproduction copies of photographs of project activities or media produced for the project.

Project Purpose

Include your program purpose statement here

| Infopeople is a multifaceted project that provides continuing education for California library staff; supports other LSTA and statewide library projects; plans, coordinates, and provides logistical support for special events for the State Library; offers various kinds of technical assistance to libraries; explores library applications of new technologies; develops and shares resources and original web content; and facilitates statewide communication among libraries. The Infopeople Advisory Board has defined the mission of the Infopeople Project as being, “To improve the quality of life of the people of California by upgrading the performance and effectiveness of California libraries,” and the goal of the Project as being, “To provide the California library community with the skills, tools, and resources needed to deliver high-quality service in a rapidly changing world.” |

Project Activities and Methods

How did you accomplish the project? What were the steps involved? How did you engage the target audience?

See attached narrative.

Project Outputs

What was created for the project and how much? (For instance three promotional brochures were created and 75 copies distributed; or three training classes were designed; two sessions of each were held, and 80 people were trained)

| 4 open registration on-ground workshops were conducted during Oct-2013-Sep 2014 |
| 1 on-ground session of Leading From Any Position was conducted and 2 all-day follow up sessions to a previous LFAP workshop were conducted |
| 34 online courses were offered during Oct-2013-Sep 2014 |
| 1,654 people attended online courses offered during Oct-2013-Sep 2014 |
| 3 self-paced online learning courses were offered during Oct-2013-Sep 2014 |
| 150 people attended self-paced online learning courses offered during Oct 2013-Sep 2014 |
| 6 rural on-ground workshops were conducted |
| 78 people attended rural on-ground workshops |
| 84 rural library staff participated in Infopeople online courses |
| 1 contract online course was produced |
| 44 webinars were produced |
| 5,863 people attended live webinars during Oct 2013-Sep 2014 |
| 11,150 people viewed Infopeople webinar archives during Oct 2013-Sep 2014 |
| 11 State Library partner project webinars were produced during Oct 2013-Sep 2014 |
| 29 podcasts were produced |
| Infopeople podcasts were downloaded over 4,000 times during Oct 2013-Sep 2014 |
20 sessions of the Staff Innovation Fund training were held throughout California
788 people attended the 18 Staff Innovation Fund sessions
Conducted 12 interviews for the California Library Leader Memory Project
1 Public Library Directors' Forum was held in Sacramento and attended by 161 library directors
1 Eureka! Leadership Institute was held in San Jose CA in Mar 2014
32 public librarians were selected to attend the 2014 Eureka! Leadership institute
1 in-person Infopeople staff meeting was held in Bubank in June 2014
The Infopeople website was visited by over 286,00 people and over 738,000 pages were viewed during Oct 2013-Sep 2014
The training section of the Infopeople website was visited over 110,000 times during Oct 2013-Sep 2014
The search tools section of the website was visited over 230,000 times during Oct 2013-Sep 2014
Infopeople's Facebook page is currently liked by over 400 people
Infopeople Twitter feed has over 800 followers
Partnered with WebJunction on an IMLS grant on strengthening continuing education content
Hosted the 2014 Continuing Education Forum in Sacramento in Aug 2014

Facilitated 2013 CLA Conference participation for the California State Library, California Center for the Book, California Preservation Program and Califa
Participated in the ALA 2014 LearnRT Showcase

Project Outcomes (if applicable)
Please state the outcomes and the results of your evaluation.

Over 5,500 evaluations were gathered from individuals attending our on-ground and online courses, as well as our webinars. SurveyMonkey was used to gather this data. Website usage is tracked using Google Analytics. Podcast usage is determined using a combination of Google Analytics and Hipcast (for iTunes). Over 90% of those who attend an Infopeople training event report a significant increase in their knowledge and skills as a result of the training. On average over 75% will use the information acquired in their place of work or will share their knowledge with others. Because of the diversity of topics for which Infopeople provides training, the range of knowledge/skills is wide and is not easily summarized. The specifics for each event or series of events are included as attachments to the reports to the State Library.

Additional Project Outcomes
Please state any additional intended or unintended outcomes and what data sources you used.
Anecdotal Information

Tell us a story. Give two or more examples of how the project has helped an individual or group in your community.

Learner comment from Peggy Barber’s Grantwriting 101 online course: "I tend to be hyper-critical of courses & I am easily bored, so my high praise of this one is praise indeed. I found Peggy Barber to be extremely knowledgeable, her editorial suggestions to be acute, her tone to be encouraging, & her sense of humor a tonic."

Learner comment from Penny Peck’s Children’s Services Fundamentals online course: "I was so enlightened by your class that it has encouraged me to assist our children much better with homework projects, finding books, new authors, and introducing them to other types of reading. I understand and see a much bigger picture after taking your class. I have actually been able to recognize 'a reluctant reader' and assist their parents with books and ideas to help their child enjoy reading."

Comments from a Eureka! Leadership Institute Fellow: I don't know if I can possibly convey the gratitude I feel for being able to participate in Eureka, but I will try. On so many levels, I am so honored and so thankful to have been able to participate in last week's residency (as well as the ongoing fellowship). It was simply amazing and also life-changing.

Quote from WebJunction article on Infopeople and Covered California/ACA rollout: “Recognizing that libraries would play a critical role in bridging information gaps and the eventual use of health care options, Infopeople, as the continuing education arm of the California State Library, developed custom resources for library staff to better assist patrons. The assets created include online resources such as FAQs, informational webinars and self-paced online training modules for public library staff to develop their own knowledge and skills regarding the Affordable Care Act and other health information areas such as health literacy.”

Comments from learner in Rural Ebook Extravaganza: Cheryl's honesty really makes her presentation powerful; Using the devices and following Cheryl's prompts; I thoroughly enjoyed the eReader Detective--even though some of the information was over-the-top for me. I want to rewatch it; Lots of information in an engaging format.

Comments from a learner in Leading From Any Position: [Taeaways] Now--be better participant at meetings (as I'm new in my position); future--be better facilitator of meetings (as I hope to be promoted eventually). Comments from a learner in Mentoring: Challenge and Support in Equal Measure: [Takeaway] I've been wanting to have a peer mentoring relationship w/my fellow archivists in my department. I have more skills to make it happen! I will follow up with being a mentor to new Eurekans as a Eureka fellow. I have some new ideas about supervising library school interns--that I am more of a mentor.

Exemplary Project

If you feel your project was exemplary and others could learn from it and replicate it, please tell us why.
FEEDBACK FOR THE CALIFORNIA STATE LIBRARY ON THE GRANT PROCESS
We want to learn and improve our grant processes. Please let us know what worked and what we could do differently to make it a better experience. Thank you!
Project Activities and Methods
How did you accomplish the project? What were the steps involved? How did you engage the target audience?

This narrative covers activities during Apr-Sep 2014. Activities for Oct 2013-Mar 2014 were covered in the previous grant report.

Apr-Sep 2014 centered on active programs that included on-ground workshops, online learning opportunities, webinars, podcasts, and special events. 4 sessions on 2 topics were taught in open registration on-ground workshops. 15 online courses were held and 3 self-paced online courses continued to attract new learners. 22 webinars were held and 19 podcasts were produced. 2 sessions of the Staff Innovation Fund on-ground training were held, and 6 sessions of on-ground rural library training were also conducted. Infopeople also hosted the 2014 Continuing Education (ContEd) Forum in Sacramento in Aug 2014. A total of 48 live training events were held during Apr-Sep 2014. 3,495 people participated in these various events, for an average attendance of 71 per event. Over 3,000 evaluations were collected at these various training events.

Special events and projects took up a great deal of planning and effort during Apr-Sep 2014. Infopeople helped plan and support the Staff Innovation Fund on-ground training that took place during April 2014. Infopeople also planned and hosted the national Continuing Education Forum, held in Sacramento in late Aug 2014. 33 state library staff from around the country attended this two and a half day event. Involvement and support for several partner projects also continued during this period, including California Library Literacy Services, Get Involved and Early Learning with Families 2.0 (ELF 2.0). Additionally, on-ground special training sessions in the use and support of e-readers were held at 6 rural library locations.

A snapshot of the Infopeople web and social media presence indicates continued robust usage during Apr-Sep 2014. Over 120,000 people visited the website and over 350,000 pages were viewed. Narrowing the focus, the resources section of the website was accessed over 9,000 times, and the search tools section of the website was accessed over 70,000 times. The Infopeople blog was visited over 4,000 times and the Infopeople Facebook page is currently “liked” by 427 people. 855 people follow Infopeople’s Twitter feed.

On-Ground Training – Open Registration

Apr-Sep 2014 training included the following open registration on-ground workshops:

Mentoring: Challenge and Support in Equal Measures* May 19 W. Sacramento
Mentoring: Challenge and Support in Equal Measures May 21 San Mateo
Mentoring: Challenge and Support in Equal Measures Jun 25 Rancho Cucamonga
Leading From Any Position Jun 23 & 24 Ontario

These workshops were attended by a total of 84 people.

*Materials from these workshops are included as Attachment #27.
Materials from this workshop were included with a previous report.

Participants evaluate all Infopeople training events. A summary of these evaluations is included as Attachment #1. For more information on accessing detailed evaluation data, please contact the Infopeople Project Assistant, Gini Ambrosino, at assist@infopeople.org.
Online Instruction

Infopeople offered 15 online courses during Apr-Sep 2014. 7 of these courses were first-time offerings (the asterisk denotes a new course):

Community and Civic Engagement* (Attachment #3) April 8
Redesigning Library Spaces on a Shoestring* (Attachment #4) April 8
All Work is Team Work April 22

Children’s Services Fundamentals Sep 9
STEAM in the Public Library* (Attachment #8) Sep 23
Useful Online Tools (Short Format)* (Attachment #9) Sep 30

A total of 657 people attended these courses. Materials from the new courses are included with this report as indicated above. Evaluations for all online courses are included in the final summary reports.

Useful Online Tools represents a new offering for Infopeople. Based on recommendations from the Board and remarks made in recent needs assessments, Infopeople developed a “short format” online course. This new course model offers a more outcomes-based approach to learning: gaining practical skills that can be put to immediate use. Course length is expected to average two weeks, with an emphasis on instructor-student interaction through live online meetings and discussions.

Online course final summary reports produced during Apr-Sep 2014:

All Work Is Teamwork – Apr 22-May19, 2014

Weeding for Your Library’s Health – Jul 22-Aug 18, 2014

These final reports are included with this report as Attachment #2.

Infopeople also continues to participate in the ALA/APA Support Staff Certification Program. 8 of its online courses are now certified. Of the courses offered during Apr-Sep 2014, All Work Is Teamwork, Communication Is More than Words and Teen Services Fundamentals were LSSC approved courses.

Online Instruction – Self-Paced

Three self-paced online courses were offered during Apr-Sep 2013. People can take a self-paced course over a longer period of time than the standard 4 weeks. For instance, Subject Area Reference is available over a two-month period. Given this longer timeframe, quarterly reports are prepared that look at enrollment and completion rates. The three self-paced online courses offered during Apr-Sep 2014 were:

- Affordable Care Act @ Your Public Library
- Subject Area Reference
- Health and Wellness Competencies

42 people enrolled in these self-paced courses during Apr-Sep 2014. Reports on these courses’ activity are included in this report as Attachment #10.

Online Instruction – Contract

Apr-Sep 2014 training activities included the licensing of materials from 1 contract online course. A “contract workshop” is a workshop requested by a particular library or library agency for its own staff.

South Carolina’s State Library contracted with Infopeople to obtain and use the materials from the online course “Community and Civic Engagement.” We negotiated a licensing fee of $1,500 for the use of the materials (including course readings and assignments). The course materials were provided to South Carolina both via Dropbox and a physical CD. No instructor involvement or Infopeople staff time was involved in this contract offering, beyond time spent gathering and archiving course materials.

Webinars

2,551 people attended the 22 webinars that Infopeople presented during Apr-Sep 2014. An additional 5,287 people viewed archived webinars. Live webinars presented during Apr-Sep 2013 were:

- Writing a Social Media Policy for Your Library  Apr 2
- Graphic Novel and Comic Collections for Teens  Apr 9
- Foundations of Early Childhood Development*  Apr 10

Descriptions of these webinars are included with this report as Attachment #11. Complete materials from these webinars can be found at http://infopeople.org/training/view/webinar/archived. Evaluations for these webinars are included with this report as Attachment #12.

We continued to offer webinars as a contract service to partner projects like California Library Literacy Services, and Get Involved: Powered By Your Library within California and also to outside partners like LA County Law Library and Santa Clara County Library. Our pricing is aimed solely at cost recovery: $600 for a one-hour webinar for California partners, and $1200 to partners outside of California.

Webinars marked with an asterisk indicate partner webinars, During Apr-Sep 2014 Infopeople produced webinars for Early Learning with Families 2.0 and Veterans Connect @ the Library. These webinars are marketed and archived the same way that regular Infopeople webinars are handled.

Additionally, Infopeople offers Adobe Connect “subscriptions” to library systems in California. Infopeople absorbs all costs. Current partners are: California State Library, NorthNet and Southern California Library Association (SCLC).

Podcasts

Infopeople continues to offer podcasts at no cost to libraries both in and outside California. 18 podcasts were produced during Apr-Sep 2014:

Michael Cart:
- The impact of ebooks on the reading experience
- Printz awards that might have been
- The popularity of book discussion groups
- Recent Trends in YA Lit
• Farewell to some big literary names
• The passing of Walter Dean Myers
• Reminiscences about the late Maya Angelou
• Transgender YA lit
• A New Take on Banned Books
• Talking about Elmore Leonard

Jack Baur and Amanda Jacobs Foust:
• In the library with a comic book, episode 9
• In the library with a comic book: episode 10
• In the library with a comic book, episode 11

• In the library with a comic book, episode 14
• In the library with a comic book, episode 14 1/2
• In the Library with a Comic Book: The One about Banned Book Week

These podcasts were downloaded over 2,000 times. A CD containing recordings of these podcasts is included with this report as Attachment #13.

Special Training Events and Partnerships

Staff Innovation Fund

The Staff Innovation Fund is a grant project being jointly developed by Rancho Cucamonga Library and Infopeople, with separate grants to each entity. Four different library groups are participating in a series of training designed to teach leadership skills and grant/project development. Rancho is in charge of the curriculum and Infopeople handles logistics and contracting.

Robert Karatsu and Michelle Perera presented an introductory webinar on Sep 17, 2014. Evaluations of this webinar are included with this report.

2 on-ground sessions were held during Apr-Sep 2014.

Staff Innovation Fund Training #5
Staff Innovation Fund Training #5

Apr 4        Monterey
Apr 17        El Dorado Hills

50 people attended these two sessions.

Get Involved: Powered by Your Library

Infopeople hosts two discussion lists for the Get Involved project and a clearinghouse website to further support the project (http://getinvolvedca.org/).
California Library Literacy Services

Infopeople continues to provide support and hosting for the CLLS website, and also provides server space for its video archives. Additionally, we host 9 discussion lists for the Literacy project.

During Apr-Sep 2014, Infopeople’s webmaster worked closely with CLLS to develop a new web page promoting the 30th anniversary of the CLLS.

Additionally, Infopeople produced two webinars for CLLS:

Apps for All
Integrating Online Tools into Library Literacy Instruction

April 29  June 10

105 people attended these two webinars.

Early Learning with Families 2.0

Infopeople continued to provide support for the ELF 2.0 project. During Apr-Sep 2014 Infopeople produced 4 webinars for ELF 2.0 and continued to host the old ELF website. This old website (http://elflibraries.org) is being mined for content and is expected to be retired by the end of June 2015.

The 4 ELF 2.0 webinars:

Foundations of Early Childhood Development  Apr 10
Young Children, New Media & Libraries  May 8
Creative Spaces and Family Engagement in Libraries  Jun 12
Basic Developmental Milestones of Early Childhood  September 3

Santa Clara County Library Smart Financing

As part of Santa Clara County Library’s Smart Investing @ the Library project, SCCL contracted with Infopeople to produce a series of pre-recorded webinars on a variety of financing topics. Recording was completed during a previous reporting period and all content and the project’s website is now stored and hosted on the Infopeople server. All costs for this project are being covered by Santa Clara County Library.

California Veterans Resources

Infopeople is continuing to work with the California State Library to assist public libraries in providing a variety of services to California veterans. Activities during Apr-Sep 2014 included:

- 3 libraries from the proceeding grant year continued to operate their Veterans Resource Centers: (Point Loma in San Diego, Beale in Kern County, Redding in Shasta County)
- 6 new libraries established Veterans Resource Centers using LSTA Funds and providing services with volunteers (Central in Fresno County Public Library, Exposition Park in Los Angeles Public, Mead Valley Library in Riverside County, Southgate Branch in Sacramento Public Library, Whittier Public Library and Central in Ventura County Library. 1 additional library dropped out when their focus on serving veterans changed to partnership with federal agencies.)

Additionally, Karen Bosch Cobb and Jacquie Brinkley presented a webinar on July 16, 2014. 74 people attended the live event. Evaluations are included with this report in Attachment #12.
California Library Leader Memory Project

Work continued on editing of the interviews conducted during the previous reporting cycle. Additionally, plans were made to do an additional 12 interviews in the 2014/2015 grant year.

A website (http://cllmp.org) is being developed to house the videos and the support materials (interviewee bios and timelines). A logo has also been created for use in marketing materials and the website. The website and the first batch of interviews are expected to be available by early 2015.

Virtual Grant Monitors

Infopeople has administered and managed the communications and contract development of grant monitors to support the CA State Library in monitoring of LSTA competitive, statewide and targeted grants in CA public libraries. Using the expertise of library professionals who make up the group of contract consultants, Infopeople has worked with the State Library to identify where additional expertise and grant consultation can be utilized to support the LSTA grants awarded to project libraries.

Over the course of this reporting period, Infopeople has assisted and advised the contract grant monitor/coordinator to develop the Scope of Service, Estimated Hours, Projected work detail, and Budgets for nine (9) contract consultants. These contract consultants monitored over 30 (2013/14) grants and began working on 38 (2014/15) LSTA grants and other LSTA funded projects. Contract grant monitors provide consultation to libraries in the development of their LSTA grant applications and advisement throughout the lifecycle of the grant project. Infopeople has also assisted in identifying library professionals who are qualified to meet the recommended experience and background for these contract positions.

In addition to administration and management of these contract consultants, Infopeople has provided technical support and training to consultants including online project management, email services, online meeting and conference calling access, and online information storage. Infopeople has also provided individual orientation and training on personal devices and applications used within the scope of grant monitors’ work.

Rural Library Initiative

Infopeople offered 6 rural on-ground workshops during Apr-Sep 2014.

Eureka Leadership Program

The 2014 Eureka! Fellows worked on their grant projects throughout this reporting period. Holly Hinman and Mary Ann Laun conducted site visits with all the Fellows to monitor their progress and provide support and advice.

The 2014 Eureka! Encore is scheduled for Oct 6-7, 2014 in San Jose.

The application period for the 2015 Eureka! Leadership Institute ran from August 20 – September 30, 2014. 64 people applied for the 2015 Institute, which is a record. Final selections will be made in mid-December 2014.

Mentors were also recruited for the 2015 Institute during this reporting period. They are:

- Luis Herrera (returning)
- Jan Sanders (returning)
- Margaret Todd (returning)
- Michelle Perera (returning)
- Helen Fisher
- Julie Farnsworth
- Jayanti Addleman
- Gerry Garzon

WebJunction Strengthening CE for Libraries

Infopeople concluded its participation in this IMLS grant in August 2014. From the grant abstract:

“Strengthening Continuing Education Content for Libraries is a national project designed to test new models for content creation, help Continuing Education (CE) providers design more effective online learning opportunities, and better coordinate content development. OCLC is the lead applicant, and will deliver project activities through their flagship public library program WebJunction.org. WebJunction has completed a number of projects at national scale and in partnership with state and public libraries, and is a leader in successfully deploying communities of practice that engage trainers and learners, and achieve desired outcomes for libraries.”

Final outcomes from the grant included creation of six new learning content objects that were developed using Articulate Storyline. Infopeople created one of the first objects for the training institute. This learning object is available on the Infopeople website at http://ifpmedia.org/onlinelearning/eReader_detectives/module/ and through WebJunction’s Moodle installation.

2014 Continuing Education Forum

Infopeople hosted the 2014 Continuing Education Cohort Forum. It was held in Sacramento Aug 25-27, 2014. 33 CE coordinators from around the country attended. There were sessions on the Edge Initiative, digital badging, updates on the various national continuing education grants that are currently in progress, and reports on CE activities in the states attending. Gerry Maginnity and Greg Lucas were kind enough to come and greet everybody and Infopeople also arranged a tour of the renovated State Library. Evaluations from attendees are attached to this report as Attachment #14. Materials from this event are attached to this report as Attachment #28.
Other Events:

- Eileen O’Shea continued to provide weekly summaries of Infopeople activities in her Peep Updates. The updates from Apr – Sep 2014 are included with this report as Attachment #15.
- Infopeople continues to get lots of great incidental feedback from learners. Some of these learner comments are included with this report as Attachment #16.
- Infopeople consultant Eileen O’Shea attended an IMLS focus group on learning spaces in libraries on May 15, 2014. Her report is included with this report as Attachment #17.
- Infopeople consultant Francisca Goldsmith participated in an online meeting on ACA, Enrollment Programs, and Public Libraries that took place on May 21, 2014. Her report is included with this report as Attachment #18.
- Infopeople consultant Lisa Barnhart attended an IMLS focus group on STEM learning in libraries on June 5, 2014. Her report is included with this report as Attachment #19.
- Infopeople consultant Eileen O’Shea attended a Library Journal webinar on making your maker spaces, on June 18, 2014. Her report is included with this report as Attachment #20.
- An Infopeople staff meeting was held in Burbank on June 19, 2014. Minutes from this meeting are included with this report as Attachment #21.
