

Harwood Training Workshop Application 2019

The California State Library invites libraries to participate in a hybrid online/live training in the Harwood Institute practice of community engagement. Please complete ONE application per library system. All participants will join in online assignments before and after the in-person workshop. There are two options for live training workshops: Wednesday, November 6, in Anaheim, and Friday, November 8, in Sacramento.

1. Library System

2. Name

We ask that you view two short videos (3-4 minutes each) about another organization's Harwood experience:

<https://youtu.be/JUCXBuD0YW4> and <https://youtu.be/wpEAyPZafika>

3. What's your response to these videos?

4. What did you hear about how the Harwood approach shaped the speaker's understanding of their community?

5. What possibilities, if any, do you see for this approach in your community?

6. Has your library participated in Harwood training previously?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Other comments: How many current staff were trained? Was the training put to use? Any other helpful information is appreciated.
