

Questions for Family Literacy Participants During Your Roles and Goals Evaluation Conversation

Since you've been in the family learning program, can you communicate better with your family or on behalf of your family?

Yes / No

If yes, can you give an example of better communication?

If no, what would help you communicate better?

Since you've been in the family learning program, have you used any new resources to support your family? (name examples to help)

Yes / No

If yes, what resources did you use?

If no, what kind of resources would help you support your family?

Since you've been in the family learning program, have you noticed changes in how you are able to support different family members?

Yes / No

If yes, can you give an example?

If no, what would help you support family members?

If you have children, have you been able to select and share books with them?

Yes / No

If yes, can you give an example?

If no, what would help you select and share books with your family?

Other questions you might want to ask:

1. Do you have any questions about the program?
2. What would make Family Literacy Services even better?